Reference is made to the case captioned "Robert Franklin Williams, aka, Fugitive, IO 3506, UFAP-Kidnapping."

Williams, a Security Index subject of the Charlotte Office, is the fugitive who is being sought for unlawful flight for kidnapping in connection with a racial demonstration at Monroe, North Carolina, on 8/27/61. He has been diagnosed as schizophrenic in 1948. He is known to be in possession of firearms and considered extremely dangerous.

Mayfield, a free-lance writer, has been described as being a Communist Party (CP) sympathizer and to have been a CP member possibly as late as 1955. He has been connected in the past with other organizations which have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. Subject and [redacted] (Security Index subject of the New York Office), arrived in San Juan, Puerto Rico, on 6/30/60, from Havana, Cuba, where they were met by a self-admitted former member of the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico, (NPPR), and the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA). Mayfield was identified as a coauthor of an ad sponsored by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), which appeared in the 4/21/60 issue of "The New York Times." This advertisement denounced U. S. support of the anti-Castro evasion forces. This advertisement contradicts numerous statements made in U. S. newspapers regarding Castro and defends Fidel Castro for the Cuban revolution. The name Julian Mayfield was included in the list of sponsors of this advertisement.

Williams was last known to have been in the company of Mayfield. Williams, his wife and children, left Monroe, North Carolina, between 9:00 and 10:00 p.m., on 8/27/61, in Mayfield's car with [redacted] who is a Security Index of the signers of "A Declaration of Conscience for Afro-Americans", condemning the United States invasion plot against Cuba and citing the plight of 20 million Afro-American people.

A characterization of the "Workers World" appears in the Appendix section of this report.

Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC)

NY T-1 advised on April 29, 1961, that the FPCC held its first anniversary banquet on April 28, 1961, at the Brass Rail Restaurant, 521 5th Avenue, New York City. The speakers extolled the glories of the Cuban Revolution and leadership of FIDEL CASTRO, Cuban Prime Minister, and bemoaned American intervention in the affairs of Cuba.

According to the informant, one of the individuals introduced from the floor was the subject, and he was described as the co-author of the FPCC advertisement which appeared in the April 21, 1961 edition of the "New York Times", a daily newspaper published in New York City.

(S) An advertisement which appeared on page 80 of the "New York Post", a daily newspaper published in New York City, dated April 25, 1961, entitled, "Declaration of Afro-Americans" reflected that this advertisement was sponsored by the FPCC and that the subject's name appeared in the advertisement. The "Philadelphia Afro-American", a publication of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, dated July 29, 1961, page 4, column 4, reflected an article written for that publication by one JULIAN MANFIELD, no further identifying information, which identified ROBERT F. WILLIAMS as one of the 30 founding members of the FPCC. The writer requested in his article that all FPCC members and supporters should send financial help to WILLIAMS. It was pointed out therein that WILLIAMS had suggested that Afro-Americans actively resist racist attacks, for which he was suspended as President of the Union County (North Carolina) National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), but that support he received led to his reinstatement. This article further stated that WILLIAMS would fight with arms, if necessary, to secure justice for himself and his children.

"The New York Times", a daily publication in New York City, dated April 6, 1960, contains an advertisement, "What's Really Happening in Cuba?" by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, Box T249 Times, New York, which contradicts numerous statements made in United States newspapers regarding CASTRO. The advertisement, which defends FIDEL CASTRO, Prime Minister of Cuba, reflects a list of sponsors, which includes the name of the subject.

A characterization of the FPCC appears in the Appendix section of this report.

Activities Conducted by Subject on Behalf of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS and Racial Struggle in North Carolina

The "Workers World", dated July 14, 1961, page 1, article captioned, "KKK Attempts to Murder ROB WILLIAMS", reflected that the Afro-American Alliance for Action held a meeting on July 10, 1961, in New York

City to raise money for guns for the "Black Freedom Fighters of Monroe, North Carolina". It was further reflected in this article, that the subject addressed the a meeting, discussing the racial struggle conducted by WILLIAMS in Monroe, North Carolina.

The Ku Klux Klan has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On July 10, 1961, NY T-1 advised that an unknown Negro organization planned to hold a meeting that evening at 310 Lenox Avenue, New York City. One of the speakers was to be the subject. A collection was to be taken up at this meeting and the money was to be used to buy weapons for the militant anti-segregationists in the South.

On July 11, 1961, this source advised that the meeting held on July 10, 1961, was under the name of Afro-American Alliance for Action. According to the source this name was just utilized for the purpose of this particular meeting as he had never heard of it before. The source observed a number of people in attendance, who, he believed were connected with the On Guard Committee for Freedom group.

A characterization of the On Guard Committee for Freedom appears in the Appendix section of this report.

"The Militant", dated July 24 and 31, 1961, in an article captioned, "New Challenge Faces NAACP Leadership" refers to an article written by subject in another publication, in which subject poses the possibility that the increasingly dynamic civil rights struggle will necessitate the replacement of present leaders by other young men and women like ROBERT WILLIAMS of Monroe, North Carolina "who have concluded that the only way to win a revolution is to be a revolutionary".

~~SECRET~~

NY 100-120145

"The Militant", is a weekly newspaper of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) which was been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

NY T-2 advised on August 24, 1961, that an announcement was made at a meeting of the SWP, New York Local, held on August 10, 1961, in New York City, that the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) was going to have a forum on September 8, at which the subject would be the speaker. According to the informant, the purpose of this forum was to help raise funds for ROBERT WILLIAMS, with some of this money going towards the purchase of guns for WILLIAMS in the South.

A characterization of the YSA appears in the Appendix section of this report.

NY T-3 advised on August 30, 1961, that the subject, a friend of ROBERT WILLIAMS, was scheduled to speak at a forum, previously mentioned, which would be held at Adelphi Hall, New York City, on September 8, 1961. According to the informant, the topics of the subject's discussion would be the "Attempted Assassination of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS" and the "Crisis of Negro Leadership."

On August 21, 1961, ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS and his associates kidnaped at gun point two white persons in Monroe, North Carolina and held them as hostages at his (WILLIAMS') residence for approximately two hours before releasing them.

The Grand Jury, Monroe, North Carolina, returned two true bill on August 28, 1961, charging WILLIAMS with two counts of kidnaping. An authorized complaint was filed with the United States Commissioner at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging WILLIAMS with violation of Title 18, Section 1073, in that he unlawfully fled from the State of North Carolina to avoid prosecution for the crime of kidnaping.

A Federal warrant was issued on August 28, 1961, at Charlotte, charging him with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for kidnaping.

NY T-4 advised on September 25, 1961, that the SWP was quietly supporting the Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants. According to the informant, the Party set out a statement of the situation and circumstances in Monroe, North Carolina, that led to the kidnaping charge against WILLIAMS and others. The SWP requested all Negro comrades to get "sponsors" for the movement who could later be organized into an action committee.

According to this informant, the FPCC was also quietly supporting the Monroe Aid Committee which was to be called the Monroe Defense Committee. The informant advised that the subject and [redacted] were included as backers of this Committee. The informant felt that there were actually three Monroe committees in addition to the committees previously mentioned. There was also a group led by the "On Guard for Freedom" group which uses the same address as the FPCC group at 53 West 125th Street, New York City.

The "National Guardian", dated September 25, 1961, page 5, reflected an advertisement placed by the Monroe Defense Committee, in which the subject is listed as one of the sponsors of this Committee.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (FPCC)

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contains a full page advertisement captioned, "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the FPCC. This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City, listed various sponsors of the Committee and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press on Cuban affairs.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself as one of the organizers of the FPCC. Also, Dr. SANTOS-BUCH identified ROBERT TABER as a co-organizer of the FPCC and said TABER drafted the aforementioned FPCC advertisement. Dr. SANTOS-BUCH further testified that he and TABER obtained $3,500 from the Cuban Government through the son of Cuba's Foreign Minister, which funds, along with about $1,100 collected from supporters of the FPCC, paid for the cost of aforementioned advertisement in "The New York Times."

On October 3, 1960, a source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York had become active in the FPCC, and that SWP members, in a recent FPCC election, had been able to remove several Communist Party members who were on the Executive Board of the FPCC and gain control of the organization. This source asserted that the SWP members believed that they had achieved a great influence in the course of the Cuban revolution through their control of the FPCC.

On February 10, 1961, a second source advised that PHIL BART, National Organizational Secretary and member of the National Committee, CP, USA, had reportedly stated recently that the FPCC had been captured by the Trotskyites, but that the CP had not given up in the FPCC.

The SWP and the CP, USA, have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INC.

The records of the Secretary of State, New York State Department of State, Albany, New York, reflect that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Inc., was filed on March 2, 1961.

The first issue of "Freedomways," spring, 1961, is self-described as a quarterly review of the Negro freedom movement published by Freedomways Associates, Inc., 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 25, 1961, a confidential source advised that "Freedomways" was set up by JAMES JACKSON, a member of the National Committee, CPUSA, for the CP of the United States with the approval of the CP of the Soviet Union.

On May 24, 1961, another confidential source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

ON GUARD COMMITTEE FOR FREEDOM (OGCFF)

A confidential source advised on February 15, 1961, that the "On Guard Committee for Freedom" (OGCFF) was formed on February 14, 1961, in the Harlem section of New York City. Its purpose was to avenge the death of PATRICE LUMUMBA and the fathers and mothers of slaves killed in the past.

"The New York Times", issue of March 1, 1961, on page twenty-five, commented that CALVIN L. HICKS, a newspaper writer, who is editor of a six-page newspaper, is associated with the OGCFF. The tabloid edited by him has favored the LUMUMBA and CASTRO regimes and has called on President KENNEDY to aid "Afro-American" families in Tennessee while asserting the U.S. was subsidizing Cubans in Florida.

A second confidential source on February 29, 1956, furnished information that [] was at that time a member of a Communist Party cell in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The May, 1961 edition of "On Guard," official organ of the OGCFF, on page two, stated that the purpose of the OGCFF was "to act as an educational and action organization. To inspire our people to united mass action on issues affecting their rights and opportunities. To expose those agents and agencies representative of government who violate those principles and documents upon which this country was founded." The above editorial contained in part, "In order to implement the above-mentioned principles, OGCFF shall advocate and make use of the picket line, the boycott, the petition forums and mass circulation of 'On Guard', our monthly newspaper."

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group, under the leadership of National Committee member [redacted], known in the SWP as [redacted], split from the SWP.

The source stated that this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of Leon Trotsky and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery-individuals characterized by the minority as petty-bourgeois.

The minority program, according to the source, advocates the unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1960, the source advised that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party (WWP).

On May 4, 1961, the source stated that Headquarters of the WWP were located at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York.

The SWP and the CP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960 issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS) page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA), was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 3, 1961, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City, by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised that the YSA is dominated and controlled in its leadership and ranks by members of the SWP. The source added that the SWP considers the YSA as a training ground for hard-core SWP leadership activity and as its current and future hope for recruits and the promulgation of the SWP movement throughout the United States.

The headquarters of the YSA are located at 10 East 23rd Street, New York City.

The YS is a monthly publication, self-described in the May, 1961 issue as the official organ of the YSA.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Column 2, page 7, of August 19, 1953, edition of the "Daily Worker" contains an article captioned "3 United States Youths Win Prizes in Music, Literature, in Fete at Bucharest" by David Platt. This article reports that in the International Cultural Competitions at the Fourth World Youth Festival held at Bucharest, Rumania, Warren Miller of New York City, received an award of honor for his short story "Baptism" which originally appeared in "Masses and Mainstream".

Re: Fair Play for Cuba Committee

Julian Hudson Mayfield

On page 7, column 3, of the August 2, 1951 edition of the "Daily Worker" there appears an article which identified Julian Mayfield as Chairman of the Subcommittee on Unemployment, Committee for the Negro in the Arts, 261 West 125th Street, New York City.

The Committee for the Negro in the Arts has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The February 9, 1953, issue of the "Daily Worker", on page 6, column 2, reflects under the heading "What's On" that Julian Mayfield was to direct the play "The Big Deal" for "fund raising". The term "fund raising" was not further described.

The July 24, 1950, issue of the "Daily Worker", on page 8, column 2, reflects under an article captioned "100 Negro Leaders Hit Intervention in Korea with War for Slavery", that Julian Mayfield was listed as one of more than 100 American Negro Leaders denouncing American intervention in Korea as part of an attempt to have the "United States replace Europe in the enslavement of Asia and Africa."

The May 27, 1952, issue of the "Daily Worker" on page 8, column 2, reflects under an article captioned "Mother of POW to speak at Peace Fete Tomorrow" that a Peace Festival was to be held on May 28, 1952 for the purpose of demonstrating dissatisfaction in the handling of the prisoner of war issue and the call for a truce in Korea and an immediate end of warfare.

Re: Fair Play for Cuba Committee

According to the article, Julian Mayfield was scheduled to participate in the affair.

An article captioned "Negro Theatre Group's Powerful Play Against Witch Hunting" appearing in the September 26, 1952 issue of the "Daily Worker" on page 7, column 1 through 3, reflects that a play entitled "Alice in Wonder" was being presented at the Elks Community Theatre by two individuals, one of whom was Julian Mayfield. The play was described as follows:

"It is the story of a husband and wife, he a noted singer, she a gifted actress, and of the moral crises in their lives brought about by the talent "Witch Hunting Hysteria".

On page 7, of the "Daily Worker", February 11, 1953 edition, there appears an article which reflects that Julian Mayfield appeared in a play under the auspices of Civil Rights Congress (CRC).

The CRC has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Page 7, column 1, of the May 29, 1953 edition of the "Daily Worker" reflects that Julian Mayfield was a speaker at a rally called in the defense of V. J. Jerome.

V. J. Jerome was one of the CP leaders convicted in United States District Court Southern District of New York, on January 21, 1953 for violation of the Smith Act of 1940. He was subsequently incarcerated in Federal Penitentiary, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. He was released from prison on May 17, 1957, on conditional release, to June 28, 1957, at which time his sentence for violation of the Smith Act of 1940 was completed.

Re: Fair Play for Cuba Committee

The "Daily Worker" edition of July 1, 1953, on page 8, contained an advertisement to announce that Julian Mayfield was a staff leader on the Camp Unity Interracial Gala Program featuring a musical review from July 3 to July 5, 1953.

Concerning Camp Unity (Wingdale, New York), the Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, dated January 2, 1957, and prepared by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives stated:

"1. Cited as a "notorious Communist rendezvous"**.

"(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1945 HR 1648, January 17, 1956, originally released January 11, 1956 p.p. 9 and 10)."

The "Daily Worker" of May 25, 1954, on page 3, column 1, announced that a "Cultural Salute to Paul Robeson" would be held on May 26, 1954 at 8 PM at the Renaissance Casino, 138th Street at Seventh Avenue, New York City in support of the restoration of Robeson's passport. The article stated that the program was to be directed by Julian Mayfield who was described as a rising young negro actor and playwright."

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised in June, 1950, that Paul Robeson was known to him prior to 1945 as a concealed Communist.

The "New York Times" newspaper, Late City Edition, April 6, 1960, contains an advertisement "What is Really Happening in Cuba?" by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee,
